General Business

Christmas party. G. Bickford advised he received menus; D. Ash recommended that special menus be advised as soon as practicable. Next step is to meet venue and confirm menu and arrangements for the day.

Sunday brunch– Cooper's Café, 409 Esplanade Manly 10am

Rover to Coolum Henry Royce centre, need to contact Frank Carol, Rolls Royce Club, to discuss proposed date (Saturday 2 November).

Noted need to send flyers soon if dates are imminent.

Some discussion on last weekend's Rover to Toowoomba, and confirmation to those who attend that Toowoomba would be ideal for the National Rover in 2022. We can meet with Frank Carol, Rolls Royce Club, and discuss some details and ideas as the RRC recently held rally in Toowoomba.

G. Bickford going to talk to R. Locke about Christmas Party Flyer.

All British Day discussed. 23 Rovers in attendance, $117 merchandise sold.

G. Bickford showed pictures from Toowoomba Rove. Comments on how dry everything was and also discussion on the high standard of dancing at the Turkish restaurant Saturday night. J. Lowe received specific commendation for his efforts.

D. Ash had samples of Rover 75 harmonic balance and movement of timing marks which drives the power steering and air-con etc.

C. Barraud explained losing a bearing or pulley and watching it roll down the road.

Discussion re Toowoomba Second Range Crossing and its low speed limit (90km/hr) and the average speed detection.
